

Accessibility Statement for Arc-Decon

This is an accessibility statement from Architectural Deconstruction Ltd..

Measures to support accessibility

Architectural Deconstruction Ltd. takes the following measures to ensure accessibility of Arc-Decon:

- Include accessibility as part of our mission statement.
- Include accessibility throughout our internal policies.
- Integrate accessibility into our procurement practices.

Conformance status

The Web Content Accessibility Guidelines \(WCAG\) defines requirements for designers and developers to improve accessibility for people with disabilities. It defines three levels of conformance: Level A, Level AA, and Level AAA. Arc-Decon is partially conformant with WCAG 2.1 level AA. Partially conformant means that some parts of the content do not fully conform to the accessibility standard.
